Fine Crystal Barware

Elegant from every angle beautiful from every point of view

Observe the crystals from above, from the liquid's point of view which is poured into them, or from the drinker's angle who is about to toast to a special occasion. No matter the crystal, both will always see the circular rim first. Then, as you raise the crystal to your mouth, be struck by its sparkling clarity and purity. Let the extravaganza of fine crystal barware mesmerize you as the culmination, the meeting of rim and lip, completes your experience.
